

Galapagos Islands - 2012

Galapagos islands are a group of islands off the west coast of Ecuador and found on the equator. It takes just over three hours to fly there from Quito. It is the best wildlife experience of your life. Most of the animals you see here you will not find anywhere else. You can see huge tortoises, scuba dive with a hammerhead shark, or swim with a sea lion.

The best way to see the islands is by boat. We have four first class vessels. We have many itineraries please contact our office and we can give you a quote. The following is just one of our options.
